Unless otherwise agreed upon in writing or required by law, payments may be applied to amounts due at our discretion.
2. Returned Check Fee. If any check presented in payment on your Account is returned to us unpaid by your bank, we may charge to your Account the amount of the check plus a collection fee of $20.00 to cover our collection costs, plus any bank service fees, along with such other amount as may be authorized under Minnesota law. We will add any such fees to the balance due on your Account.

You agree that we have the rights set forth in this Agreement in addition to those rights we have under applicable law, including but not limited to any other common law or statutory lien on the Collateral until the Account is paid in full. You agree to take any action we may request in order to perfect and to continue to perfect our security interest in the Collateral. Upon default, we shall have the full power to repossess, sell, lease, or otherwise deal with the Collateral, or the proceeds thereof. We may sell the Collateral at public auction or private sale. You agree that the requirements for reasonable notice will be met if notice is provided at least ten (10) days prior to the disposition of the Collateral. All costs and expenses associated with repossession and disposition of the Collateral shall become part of the amount due on the Account secured by this Agreement, and shall be payable on demand, with interest, from the date of expenditure until repaid. If we sell or dispose of the Collateral, we may obtain a judgment against you for any deficiency remaining on the Account after application of the amounts received after exercise of the rights under this Agreement. We shall have all of the rights and remedies of a secured creditor under the Uniform Commercial Code, as may be amended from time to time. In addition, we shall have all other rights and remedies available at law, in equity, or otherwise.

The seller is required to maintain proper records of exempt transactions and provide those records to the state when requested in the form in which it is maintained. These certificates may be provided in paper or electronic format.

The seller is not liable for any tax, interest, or penalty if the purchaser improperly claims an exemption or provides incorrect information on the certificate, provided all the following conditions are met:

2. The seller did not fraudulently fail to collect the tax due; and

General information

When is a Certificate of Resale required?

Generally, a Certificate of Resale is required for proof that no tax is due on any sale that is made tax-free as a sale for resale. The purchaser, at the seller's request, must provide the information that is needed to complete this certificate.

Who keeps the Certificate of Resale?

The seller must keep the certificate. We may request it as proof that no tax was due on the sale of the specified property.

Do not mail the certificate to us.

Can other forms be used?

Yes. You can use other forms or statements in place of this certificate but whatever you use as proof that a sale was made for resale must contain

- the seller's name and address;
- the purchaser's name and address;
- a description of the property being purchased;
- a statement that the property is being purchased for resale;
- the purchaser's signature and date of signing; and
- either an Illinois account ID number, an Illinois resale number, or a certification of resale to an out-of-state purchaser.

Note: A purchase order signed by the purchaser may be used as a Certificate of Resale if it contains all of the above required information.

When is a blanket certificate of resale used?

The purchaser may provide a blanket certificate of resale to any seller from whom all purchases made are sales for resale. A blanket certificate can also specify that a percentage of the purchases made from the identified seller will be for resale. In either instance, blanket certificates should be kept up-to-date. If a specified percentage changes, a new certificate should be provided. Otherwise, all certificates should be updated at least every three years.
